POLICY

The special education programs in the Devine Independent School District operate under local district board policies. This operational guidelines manual is to clarify and support local district policy, State Board of Education and Commissioner's Rules for Special Education Services, and 34 Code of Federal Regulations (Individuals with Disabilities Education Act) IDEA 2004 - Part 300. The local district board approved policy manual may be found in the office of the superintendent, the administrative office of each school, and the special education office. The list on the next page includes the most frequently referenced policy sections which relate to special education services.
